DANCE HOMECOMING 1978

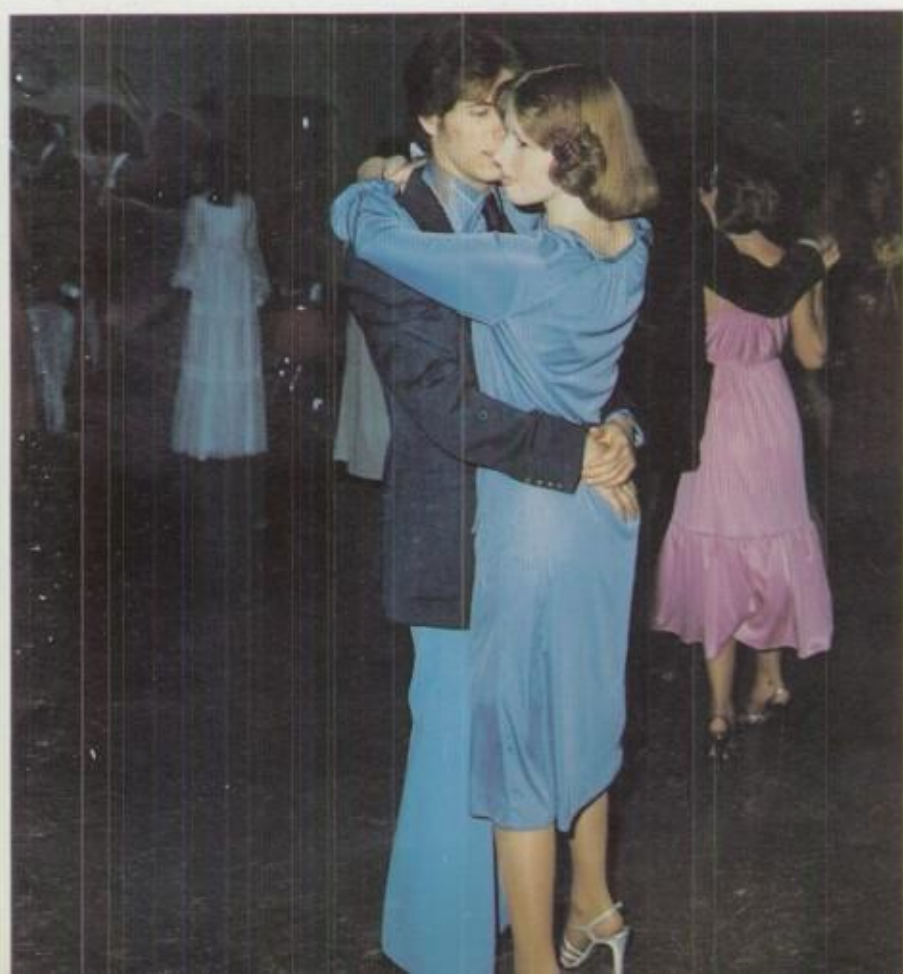

On October 8, 1978 the students of Schaumburg High School and Alumni took part in another successful homecoming. This year's homecoming theme was "Once Upon A Time."

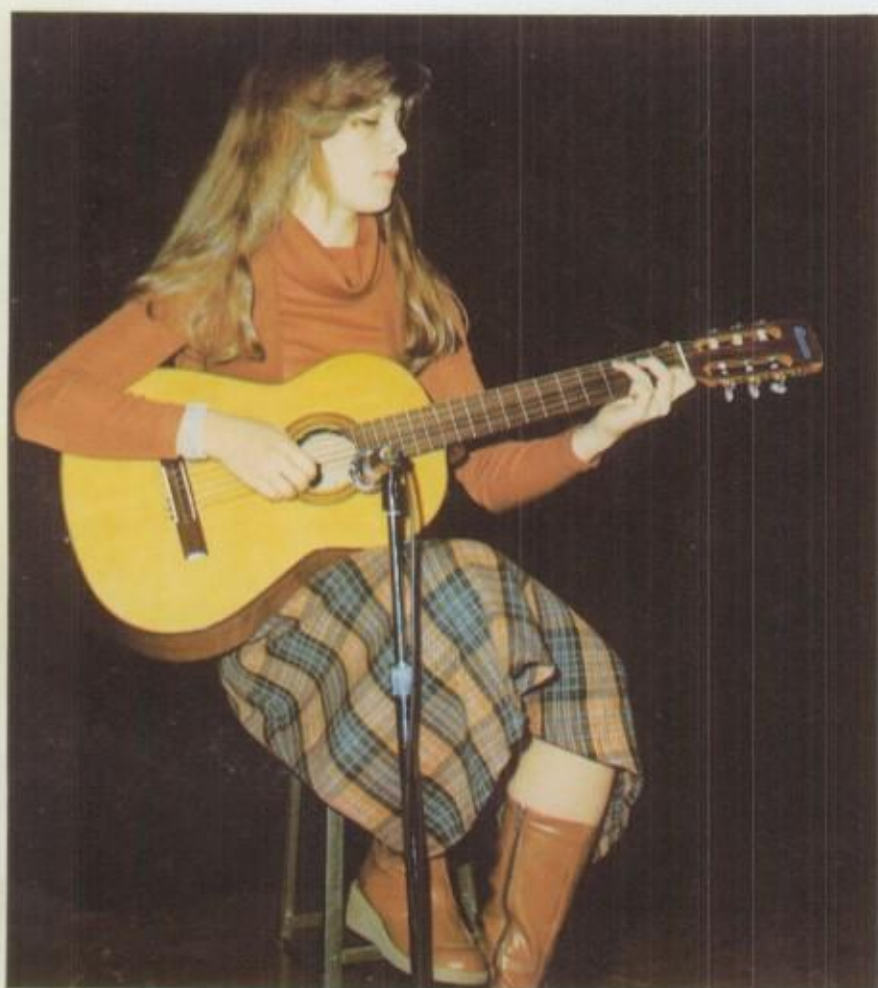

The day began with the annual parade. Next was the alumni tea. Then the Varsity defeated Hoffman, and to end this successful day was the Homecoming dance.

This year's homecoming queen was Dawne Hosford. Senior attendant was Julie Caldwell, Junior attendant was Meg Lochary. Sophomore attendant Debbie Chovanec, Freshman attendant was Kelli Stevens. The queen, her court, and the Rose Arbor put on the finishing touches for a memorable evening.

VARIETY SHOW

"That's Entertainment" was this year's theme for Schaumburg High School's annual Variety Show, which took place on November 17 and 18. Thirty-four acts auditioned this year and the faculty sponsors had the difficult task of narrowing it down to 15 acts which performed. The master of ceremonies was Joe Brush, he introduced the various singing, dancing skits, musical compositions, and even a twirling act. The Choir, comedy troupe, and Modern Dance Club performed many enjoyable numbers to complete the show.

The winner of the 1978 Variety Show was Natalie Gong, who performed a marvelous ballet to the song "Do You Know". She was chosen by eight judges who are each professionals when it comes to talent. The 1978 Variety Show was enjoyable and a pleasure to see, as always.

Siegi's Follies - Parents' Teachers' Star

Siegi's Follies '79, entitled "An Original Musical Comedy", was presented by the VIP Club and some of the faculty on Feb. 23 and 24 in our school auditorium.

The show started out on a good note with the entire cast singing "Happy Days are Here Again". However, it was a little difficult to hear them over the music at times, and the height of the microphones was distracting until you become used to it. But you could forget about these things because they all seemed to be so happy on stage performing.

Act 1 seemed to drag on somewhat, even though sparks of talent were visible in Jack Ludwig's number "Believe" and San Viviano's "You Don't Send Me Flowers" in Scene 3.

The first bit of true humor was in Scene 6 in the duet of "Barnyard Rooster" sung by Mr. Bunch and Marilyn Teschner. Mr. Bunch was so perfectly out of tune and so deadpan that the person I was with kept telling me to shut up and write-I couldn't stop laughing.

Act 2 moved along at a livelier pace than the preceding act, and Mr. Baron's tango dance was a sight. Is there a pussycat behind that tough facade? However, it was never really explained why, all of a sudden, Dirty Harry liked the woman detective.

Her tap dancing wasn't stiff at all and she seemed like a real pro. I couldn't help thinking, "She must have done this before." "Never on a Sunday", the number performed by Marge Mefford and Mr. Weimer, was well received by the audience. I never realized that Mr. Weimer was such a ham or so talented a singer or actor.

The closing scene was impressively staged, and did go over well with the audience. I found myself wondering though, after it was all finished, what happened to the No-Tell Motel? They never really tell us for sure!

All in all, the parents and faculty involved did a good job. It being an amateur show, they could get away with the corny jokes and somewhat slapstick humor. My only complaint was that it was too long, and parts of some scenes seemed unnecessary to the plot. But they had "high hopes", and the cast should all be proud of Siegi's Follies '79.

1978 Xmas Turnabout Dance

1978 Christmas Turnabout

A sleigh ride together with you, was the theme of the 1978 Christmas Turnabout. The dance was held on December 16 in the school cafeteria and music was provided by "Show Biz."

The king for the 1978 Turnabout was Dave Reisinger, senior attendant: Dave Kiley, junior attendant: Ray Anderson, sophomore attendant: Rob Murphy, and the freshmen attendant: Dan Wiese. Turnabout was enjoyed by all who attended.

FALL PLAY

MURDER AT THE VICARAGE by Agatha Christie

Very early in the play, MURDER AT THE VICARAGE, Colonel Protheroe (Ron Finzel) was found slumped over the desk in the study - very, very DEAD! It was soon established that the Colonel had accumulated a good many enemies throughout the years. Actually, everyone had a motive, including Agatha Christie's famous female sleuth, Miss Marple!

The Vicar (Michael Scheitler) was a most impressive man-of-the-cloth! His wife, Griselda (Deidre Mc Auliffe) was clearly of a different makeup, but obviously very much in love with her more mature husband. Dennis (Tony Reardon) the Vicar's nephew, was much the man-of-the-hour type, and madly in love with Lettice Protheroe, the Colonel's daughter. Ronald Hawes (Daniel Ness) the curate, was a very hypersensitive individual, evidently attempting to "find himself" in the seclusion of the vicarage. Mary (Shelly Elman) the maid, was a bit outspoken - for her station in life, but as a result was a most entertaining part of the household!

Miss Marple, a favorite of all Agatha Christie fans, was superbly portrayed by Laura Heath, who was aware of everyone's thoughts and deeds! Lettice Protheroe (Siobhan O'Brien) did a fine job of keeping Dennis at arms-length, while chasing after handsome Lawrence Redding, the artist! Lawrence Redding (Scott Billing) was a self assured, calculating, dashing lover who had everyone, except Miss Marple, under his spell!! Mrs Price-Ridley (Janis Kropsch) was indeed the lady with the "airs" - forever suspicious and never trusting anyone! Ann Protheroe (Jessica New) the attractive not-so-heartbroken widow, presented a very believable picture of a woman completely taken in by Redding's scheme! Dr. John Haydock (Bob Panattoni) the very professional physician, and Inspector Slack (Sean Hurley) - almost another James Bond - both portrayed very realistic characters!

This play was full of excitement and suspense from beginning to end. The cast, the makeup people, and the technical crew (under the capable direction of Mr. Keith Burtt) all contributed to an OUTSTANDING performance! Mr. Tom Egan and Miss Beverly Bailey can be very proud of their students - they learned their "lessons" WELL!!!

"GEORGE M!"

On Friday, April 6 and Saturday, April 7 the Schaumburg High School Music Department presented the musical "George M!"

George M! combines a rather inaccurate biography of the late George M. Cohan with the many patriotic melodies he wrote to form a red, white, and blue salute to Broadway. The Cohan family consisted of: Nellie-Chris Wallace, Jerry-Rob Loar, Josie-Pat Norkus, and George-Tom Jones. The Cohan family got their start on the vaudeville circuit. Fame and George's determination pushed them to Broadway, adding Ethel (played by Kim Stack), George's wife, to the song-dance team. After several flops, George's first success on Broadway was "Give My Regards to Broadway" and original Cohan masterpiece.

In the midst of professional success, Ethel divorces George. Later he married chorus girl, Agnes (played by Siobhan O'Brien). The spring musical was enjoyed by all who attended.

Romanoff and Juliet

The whole cast of Romanoff and Juliet did a fantastic job, and their efforts payed off. The results: The play was a success.

As the general said of his tiny country,
 "Do visit our country, if you can. All you need do is to shut your eyes, and in the night, with tranquil minds and softly beating hearts, you will find us here . . . the realm of sense, of gentleness, of love . . ."

Romanoff and Juliet is a take-off of Shakespeare's play Romeo and Juliet. Romanoff and Juliet is a comedy but yet a political satire.

The setting of the play is the main square in the capital city of the smallest country in Europe. This is where two young people fall in love, Tgor Romanoff and Juliet Moubworth. The conflict is that Tgor Romanoff is from Russia and Juliet is from America. Both Tgor's parents and Juliet's parents are ambassadors. They must find a way to get married without their parents knowing.

The Moubworth family: Sean Hurley portrayed Hooper Moubworth, the father of Juliet. Laura Pulio portrayed Beulah Moubworth, the mother of Juliet. Juliet Moubworth was portrayed by Jessica New.

The Romanoff family: Marlon Kleenman was Vadini Romanoff, the father of Tgor. Deidre McAuliffe was Evodokia Romanoff, the mother to Tgor. Scott Harris was Tgor Romanoff. The Russian spy was portrayed by Shelly Eleman. Jr. Capt. Marfa Zlotochienko was portrayed by Janis Kropsh. Mike Schietler was Freddie Vanderstuyt. Bob Panattoni was The General. Dan Ness portrayed the part of the Archbishop. Sylvia Diaz portrayed the part as the second soldier and Chris Kraig was the first soldier.

Orchesis Show Can't Stop Dancin'

Orchesis Show
By Margaret Pollowy

On May 4th and 5th, Schaumburg High School had its first true orchesis show. The theme was "Can't Stop Dancin'" and in the seventeen numbers, the dancers showed the audience just that.

Announcer Bob Panattoni introduced all of the dances which were choreographed by the orchesis club members. They were greatly varied in subject matter, from the disco "I Will Survive" to "Rock Around the Clock" to "Music Box Dancer". Highlights of the show were the numbers "Mandy" by Natalie Gong, "A Night of Jazz" by Sharon May, "If They Could See Me Now" by Scott Billings, and "Turn The Beat Around" by Scott Billings, Natalie Gong, Sharon May, Missy Momon, Carla Montes, Donna Podraza, and Jill Zerial.

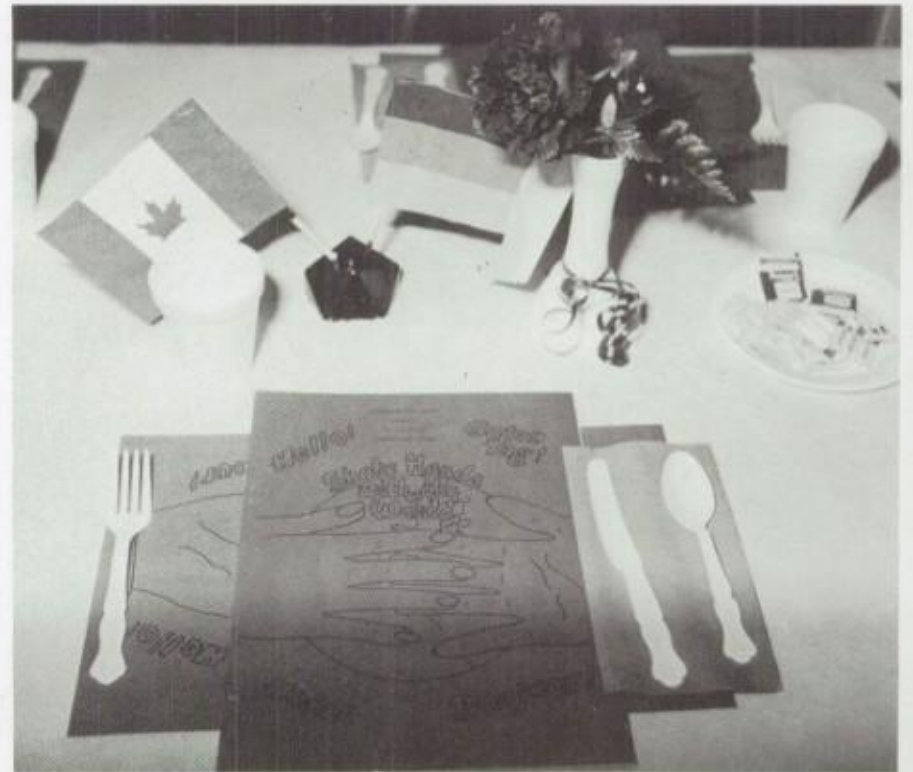

All in all, the show was a lively success, and the four months of preparation were obvious.

International Dinner

INTERNATIONAL DINNER

The faculty and students of the Foreign Language Department joined together to sponsor their 9th annual international dinner on Wednesday, March 14, in the high school cafeteria. Place-mats, programs, and decorations all carried out the theme "Shake Hands with the World." Elegant dinners representing the cuisine of France, Germany, and Spain highlighted the evening. Students provided entertainment for the enjoyment of approximately 250 guests. The dinner proved to be an evening of fun and good food for all who attended.

Always And Forever

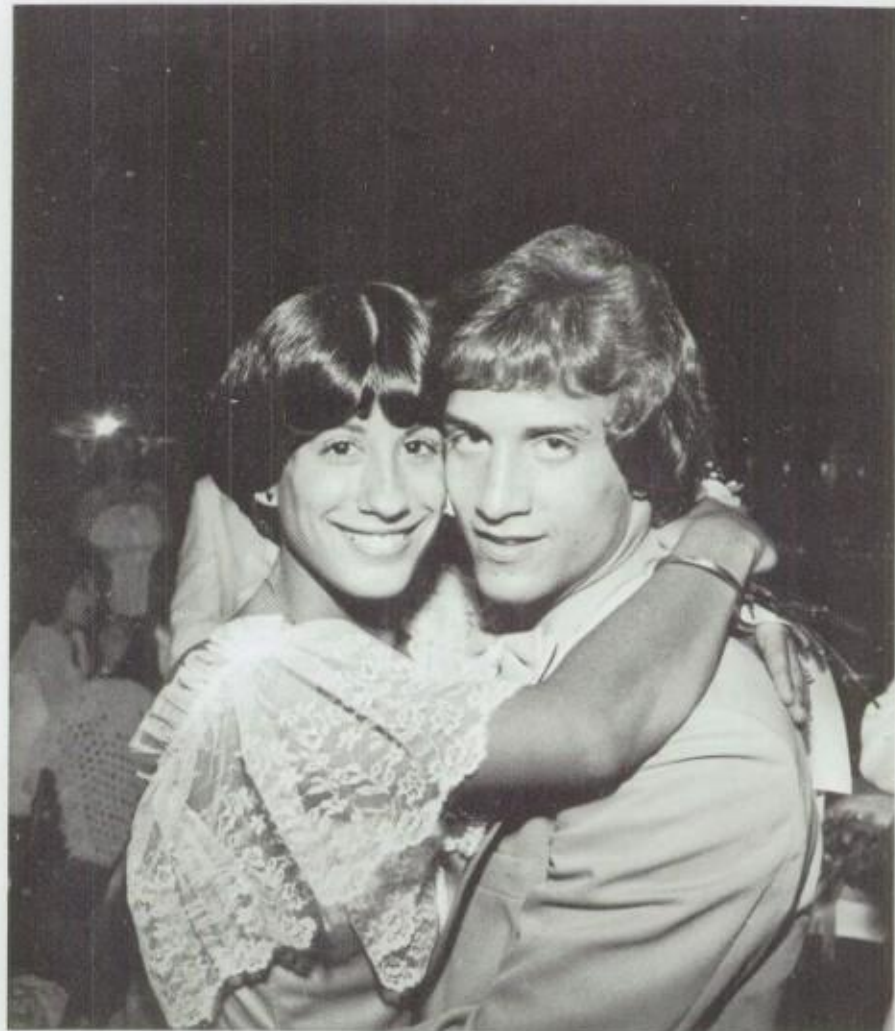

The Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by the Schaumburg High School Junior class, was as successful as always.

The dance was held at the Chateau Ritz. After a dinner of boneless chicken and rice, everyone danced to the sounds of the Debonaires.

"Always and Forever" was the theme for the 27th of April. The queen, Sandy Harris, and her court, attendants Julie Caldwell and Julie Shaftic, were introduced.

High School District 211 Administrative Center

DISTRICT 211 BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education consists of seven members who are elected by the communities served by District 211. Each member has a three year term. Elections are held each spring.

Robert Creek has been Board president for nine years. Under his leadership, the Board of Education has enacted several major changes for the students and staff in District 211. Two important changes are also the most recent: increasing the English graduation requirement to four units and implementing a testing program for minimum essential skills for the areas of mathematics and English.

The Board of Education voted for these changes to assure that the students of District 211 would have a quality educational program and a meaningful high school diploma. Recently a survey was conducted to judge the feelings of parents, students, administrators, and teachers toward the educational goals of District 211. The results have shown that these changes made by the Board are in line with educational philosophy of the community and staff of District 211.

The same foresight and planning procedures which have been used to guide educational policy-making have been used to guide financial decisions. The district's strong financial condition is a source of pride. Careful management by the Board of Education has allowed the tax rate to decrease over the past seven years.

The Board of Education realized today's high school students are tomorrow's residents and leaders. The students in District 211 are offered the opportunity to receive the best education available for these roles.

G A McElroy Administrative Center

GA McElroy
1905-1978

DISTRICT HISTORY

The Administrative Center was opened in October, 1966. At that time, Gerald A. McElroy was superintendent of High School District 211. He served as superintendent for 26 years until he retired in 1970. Prior to that time, Mr. McElroy had also served as a teacher, coach, and principal in the district for 13 years. In October, 1968, the Administrative Center was named in Mr. McElroy's honor by the Board of Education as an expression of appreciation for his years of dedication, guidance, and leadership.

When Mr. McElroy retired, Richard C. Kolze became superintendent. Previously, Dr. Kolze had worked in District 211 for 10 years as an industrial education teacher, coach, principal and assistant superintendent.

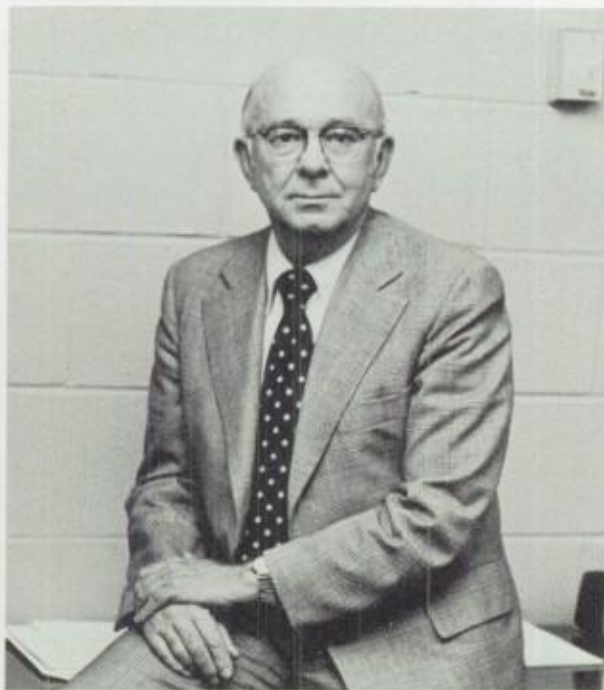

As superintendent, Dr. Kolze is employed by the Board of Education as its chief executive officer. Dr. Kolze is responsible for the operation of the five district schools with over 12,000 students and over 1,400 employees. His position involves his daily with the financial, curricular, and staffing demands of one of the largest school districts in the State of Illinois.

KEITH SHELTON ASSOCIATE SUPERINTENDENT

Keith Shelton

Keith Shelton was recently promoted to associate superintendent. He had served as assistant superintendent for fifteen years. As associate superintendent, Mr. Shelton's job duties include the supervision of the following departments: pupil personnel services, physical education, driver education, home economics, business education, industrial education, and special education. Mr. Shelton has been instrumental in the planning and implementing of the District's strong special education and vocational programs. Mr. Shelton is also responsible for summer school programs, department of instructional materials, continuing education, personnel, and non-instructional operations.

GERALD D. CHAPMAN ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT

Dr. Chapman oversees the evaluation of each school's budget, the planning for district additions or buildings, the maintenance of district buildings, and the coordination of the community relations program. He also is responsible for making recommendations to the Superintendent for the best use of staff time and classroom usage.

Gerald D. Chapman

MICHAEL W. HYDE BUSINESS MANAGER

Mr. Hyde, as district business manager, is responsible for the administration of the following departments: transportation, data processing, food service, purchasing, accounting, budgeting, and financial planning.

Michael W. Hyde

CARL A. ZDEB ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Zdeb, assistant superintendent for operations, coordinates the work of each school's assistant principals, activity directors, and police consultants. He also directs the curriculum for the following subject areas: art, English, foreign language, mathematics, music, science, and social science.

Twenty-Six Years Of Service To District 211

Rose Wick Lowery has been in charge of District 211's food service program for 18 years. Her job includes menu planning, purchasing food, food preparation, budgeting and staffing for all five district high schools.

Mrs. Lowery is retiring after twenty-six years of service to the district. She began at Palatine High School as a cafeteria employee. She was promoted to cafeteria manager and then to district food service director.

Mrs. Lowery has learned to adapt to the district's constantly growing enrollment. She has also learned to adapt her menu planning and budgeting as various changes in student "tastes" have occurred over the years.

The dedication and effort of Rose Lowery has been instrumental in the smooth operation of District 211 cafeterias.

Activities At The G.A. McElroy Administrative Center

DISTRICT CENTER CAN BE USED FOR MEETINGS

The five school principals meet with the district administrative team each Wednesday. This group is called the Administrative Council and is chaired by Superintendent Kolze. The council discusses policies which affect staff and students throughout the District.

In the above picture, Dr. Stanley Smith addresses the principals on the results of the district's 1978-1979 survey of parents, students, teachers, and administrators.

DISTRICT MAINTENANCE STAFF

The District 211 central maintenance staff is responsible for repairing any major breakdown which might occur in any of the district's buildings. They are also responsible for grounds maintenance and landscaping.

In the picture, Robert Wright, director of custodial and maintenance services, discusses with Robert Mulley, maintenance staff member, the Delta 1000 Energy Monitoring System.

DATA PROCESSING

Phyllis Ziemann of the Data Processing Department operates the new district computer. This machine was leased by the Board of Education in November, 1978, to handle the growing needs of the district.

The data processing department performs the following operations: staff payroll, accounts payable, personnel records, student records, course scheduling, attendance reporting, grade reports, test scoring and test analysis. The district's computer is used to research career/college information. This system, called CVIS, answers questions about requirements for careers and colleges.

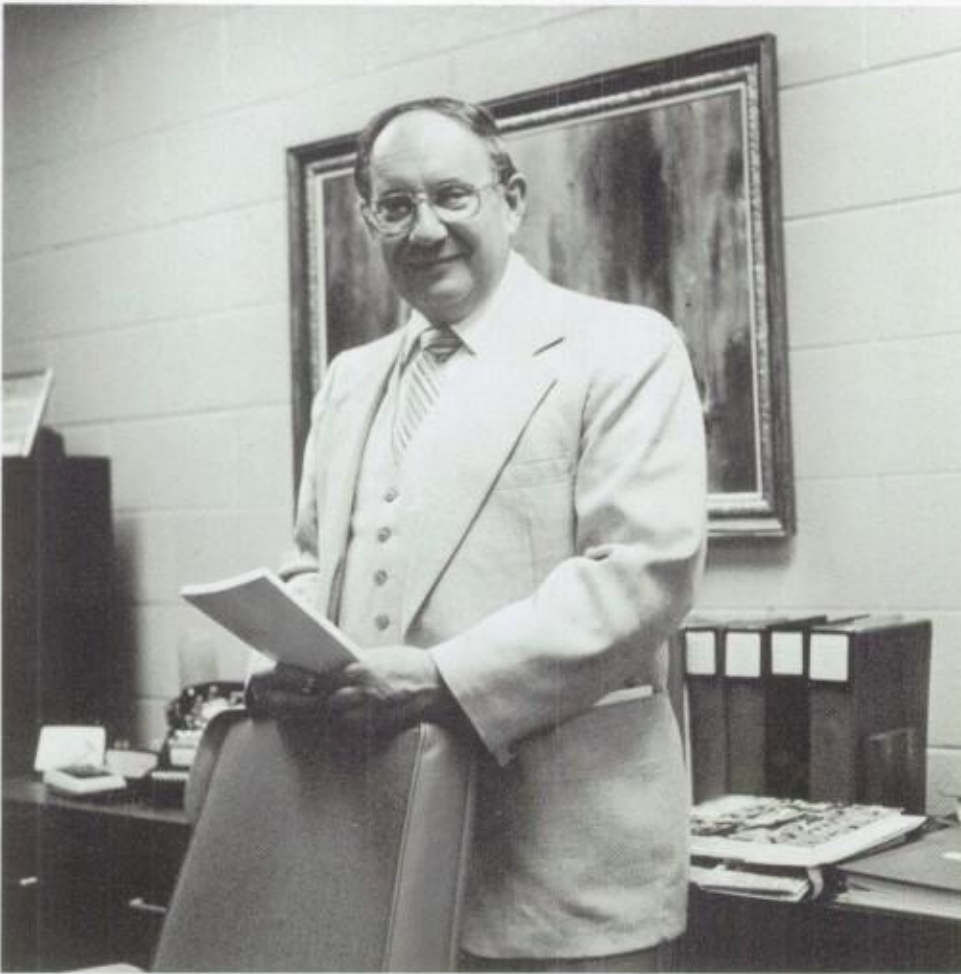

DISTRICT MEDIA CENTER

The district media processing center is responsible for the cataloging of all district library books, educational filmstrips, and tapes. Additionally, over 650 educational films are available on loan to supplement classroom instruction. It also includes a professional library which contains over 2,000 books and subscribes to over 100 periodicals.

At this time the yearbook staff would like to extend their thanks to the following people for their help with the 1978-79 yearbook.

Miss Gail Stine & all her typing classes for their help with the typing of pages for this yearbook.

Mrs. Keyser & Mrs. Templeton for their help in selling & proofreading the yearbook.

Corry Smith for all his help with the artwork.

Thank you all very much for all of your tremendous efforts. Without your help this yearbook could not have been complete.
